BILLINGS WEST HIGH SCHOOL
CHORUS TO SING IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The Billings West High School Chorus, directed by Russ Creaser, will present a free public recital Thursday (April 27) at 3 p.m. in the University of Montana Music Recital Hall.

The Billings musicians will open the program with a folk mass using the rhythms and melodies of Argentina, "Misa Criolla," by Ariel Ramirez. Soloists for the work are Dan Korneychuk and Mark Halligan, tenors, and Brad Brauer, bass. A group of instrumentalists from Billings West High will accompany the vocalists.

The chorus will also sing "Four Slovak Folk Songs" by Bela Bartok, "Three Airs for Chorus" by Eugene Butler, and "Walk Together, Children," a spiritual arranged by Robert De Cormier. Soloists for the spiritual are Mark Huisenga, baritone, and Mary Wells, soprano.

Donald A. Carey of the UM music faculty said the Billings chorus was invited to present the concert in Missoula by the UM School of Fine Arts, the University Choir, and the UM student chapter of the Music Educators National Conference. Carey is director of the University Choir and an MENC Northwest Division chairman.
